Congratulations to EBU Bay Oaks U11 Sting Blue 2001 on their 2012 NorCal Premier State Cup U11 Boys Green 2 - Bronze 11 flight. The EBU Bay Oaks Sting Blue 2001 (U11B), nicknamed, “the Killer Bees” overcame a challenging regular season to fulfill the promise of their outstanding teamwork, effort, training and coaching. The Sting Blue 2001 overpowered opponents with their swarming, defense by committee approach. Heading the stellar defensive unit was an incredible crew of goalkeepers: Richard Padmore, Lucca Cost, Toby Burack and Zackary Zabala. The defense was equally imposing with Phillip Chin, Samuel Yee, Bruce Liu, Toby Burack, Malcolm Clemons, Toby Weir, Adrian Feinberg and Lucca Cost. Check out some video highlights from the quarter finals, semis, and final games: Vs Azzurri , Vs Red Star .

Fluid ball movement on the offensive end by Adrian Feinberg, Toby Weir, Antonio Lucchesi, Zachary Zabala, Malcolm Clemons, Bruce Liu and Lucca Cost kept teams on the defensive during each contest. Great ball passing created a series of sensational goals by Toby Weir, Toby Burack, Antonio Lucchesi, Zachary Zabala and Malcolm Clemons, who racked up an amazing 8 goals in the tournament. In the championship match up against the Mustangs D3, the EBU Bay Oaks Sting Blue 2001 “Killer Bees” floated like butterflies and stung like bees shutting out their opponents and securing victory with a scintillating goal by Zachary Zabala. Thanks and Congrats to Coach Joel Higgins for his outstanding coaching, training and cool demeanor. The boys grew, developed and were inspired. A special thanks to our secret weapon Assistant Coach David Cost, Tireless Team Manager Paul Yee and our Dedicated Parents. “Une abeille n’est pas un essaim”, “One bee makes no swarm”, french proverb. This was a great team effort. Congrats EBU Bay Oaks STING BLUE 2001!!!!!
